

Carlos Campo, Ph.D.

Education

1989-93 PhD English (Drama Emphasis) UNLV

1981-86 Master of Arts (English) UNLV (Cum Laude)

1976-81 Bachelor of Arts (Theater) UNLV

Administrative Accomplishments (2008-Present)

- Worked with the Board of Trustees to form a “Spiritual Vitality Committee,” which will initiate and/or enhance spiritual activities on campus to sustain Regent University’s Christ-centered mission.
- Sparked an initiative to measure and improve each student’s spiritual health while at Regent University.
- Helped plan and develop the institutional strategic plan: “Reaching Boldly.”
- Strengthened many academic areas at the university, including revamping of the general education core of the School of Undergraduate Studies.
- Worked closely with Board of Trustees to build relationships, clarify strategic planning process and create the foundation for a sustainable university model.
- Initiated the creation of two new recruitment positions within Academic Affairs: a Director of Military Affairs and a Director of Church Initiatives.
- Worked with an effective team to launch “RU Global” and Regent University’s “Quality Enhancement Plan,” which will focus on defining and enhancing Christian global competence” in students and faculty.
- Worked with team to create an Office of Institutional Effectiveness, and have begun to develop a culture of continuous assessment and improvement.
- Worked closely with the Office of Advancement on a number of initiatives, including the securing of targeted donations.
- Helped create Regent University’s first Board Policy Manual.
- Initiated the publication of program outcomes for all Regent University programs.
- Strengthened our international initiatives by recruiting a director, creating a website, and focusing efforts around a strategic plan. Creating ‘embedded’ programmatic travel abroad experiences to help sustain our global mission.

- Initiated daily prayer for the entire campus in preparation for the Thanksgiving and Christmas holidays, including a “sunrise prayer service” for Thanksgiving.
- Initiated and helped develop a “Military Prayer Card” to be given to all active duty military personnel in the Hampton Roads Area.
- Initiated a number of academic MOUs and agreements to strengthen our “pipeline” for undergraduate and graduate education.

Publications

“Death of a Salesman,” Entry for Research Guide to American Literature: Post War Literature, 1945-1970, May 2010.

Book Review of Christian Worldview and The Academic Disciplines: Crossing the Academy, 2010.

Book Review of Mark Noll and James Turner’s The Future of Christian Education, Fall, 2008.

"Miller, Marriage and Middle America: An Uneasy Embrace." Miller and Middle America: Essays on Arthur Miller and the American Experience, University Press of America, 2007.

“Sellout or Savior?” Latin Chamber Newsletter, March 2007

Two entries for Dictionary of Literary Biography’s ‘Student Companion’ series: “Willy Loman” and “Eddie Carbone,” 2006.

“South Coast Rep goes Brooklyn." Review of “A View from The Bridge” for the inaugural publication of the Arthur Miller Journal, 2005.

"With Eyes Turned Inward." Essay, Red Rock Reader, 2005.

"Music and Miller." Arthur Miller Newsletter, 2005.

"The Garden as Unifying Symbol in Miller's Death of a Salesman." Arthur Miller Newsletter, 2004.

Siebold's Readings on ‘Death of a Salesman.’ Book Review, 2002.

"Identifying the Lazarus in Eliot's Prufrock." English Language Notes Spring 1994.

"The Role of ‘Beyond the Forest in Albee’s Who’s Afraid of Virginia Woolf?’” Film/Literature Quarterly, Fall 1993.

Presentations

"The Road Not Taken." Commencement address at StoneBridge Christian High School. June, 2011.

"The Future of Higher Education: The Barometer of America's Future." The Rotary Club of Norfolk. June, 2011.

Keynote speaker at the Hampton Roads Hispanic Chamber of Commerce's Annual Meeting. May, 2011.

"Thrift, Generosity and Honesty." Panel at Templeton Foundation, Philadelphia. May, 2011.

"Making College Completion an Expectation: How the Church Can Help." National Hispanic Christian Leadership Conference annual board meeting, San Antonio. April, 2011.

"Leadership and Professional Practice in a Globalized World." Commencement address at Universidad Tecnological Indoamerica. Quito and Ambato, Ecuador. March, 2011.

"Essential vs. Eternal: A Seminary Education in the 21st Century." Joint College of African-American Pentecostal Bishops' Congress, Cleveland. March, 2011.

"Preparing for Latina/o Students in Christian Higher Education," International Forum on Christian Higher Education, 2010.

Commencement Address, International University of Vienna, May 2010.

American Higher Education's Greatest Challenge, 3rd Annual "Encuentro," Virginia State University, March, 2010.

Preparing Global Christian Leaders, Hampton Roads Prayer Luncheon, March, 2010.

"Creating a Roadmap for your Future," Norfolk State University, Student Conflict Management Program, August, 2009.

"Jose Martí and Freedom in Cuba," Regent University Library Series on Literary Traditions, March, 2009.

"Regent Matters," Richmond Alumni Fundraiser, May, 2009.

"Count Tolstoy, Gandhi, Martin Luther King Jr. and Christianity: An Unlikely Connection," for the federally grant-funded program, The Big Read, Fall 2008.

"A Vision for Regent University's Future," Fall Faculty Retreat, September, 2008.

“State College and Community College Collaborations,” Nevada State College Faculty Orientation, August 2007.

Convocation Ceremony, CSN: The state and future of Academic Affairs: August 2007.

“Increasing Minority Student Enrollment” May 2007: The National Institute for Staff and Organizational Development (NISOD).

CSN’s 36th Commencement Address: May 2007.

Sole organizer for Arthur Miller scholarly panels for the American Literature Association conferences 2003-7.

The Reel Arthur Miller: The Playwright’s Work on Film. “‘When you look at me, you don’t see me’: Sight and Self in Miller’s Focus,” American Literature Association: May 2007.

KNPR Radio academic panel; live discussion of state educational issues: Feb. 2007.

Chosen to present on Academic Presentations for college-wide ‘Deans and Chairs’ Convocation Meeting Jan. 2007.

Convocation Presentation: “Successful First Day Strategies” Jan 2007.

Planned, Hosted, and Participated in the 11th Annual Arthur Miller Society Conference “Miller & the American West,” 2006.

New International Student Orientation, “American Classroom Expectations,” 2005, 2006, 2007.

“See Yourself at CSN” educational presentation at area schools, 2005-7.

“The Sociological Impact of Selected Arthur Miller Works.” American Literature Association, Chair, 2006.

"Music and Miller." American Literature Association, 2005.

“Miller, Marriage and Middle America: An Uneasy Embrace." American Literature Association, 2004.

“The Demystifying of the Narrative Stance in Focus.” Arthur Miller Society Conference, Rhinelander, WI. 2004.

The “Bard’s Birthday Bash” Shakespearean Celebration 2001-6.

“The Victory Garden and Death of a Salesman." American Literature Association, 2002.

"Cornering Hope: Quentin as Sisyphian Hero." Seventh International Conference at San Joaquin Delta College, CA, March 7-9, 2002.

“Teaching Shakespeare Effectively to Elementary Students.” Utah Shakespeare Festival Educational Institute, 2002.

“Is Charley Willy’s Friend?” American Literature Association, 2001.

“The Development of Cuban Music in America.” UNLV’s Multicultural Lecture Series, 1992.

Special Awards / Distinctions / Training

One of approximately 160 leaders from across the country invited to attend The Army War College’s 57th Annual National Security Seminar in Carlisle, PA. June, 2011.

Excellence in Leadership Award from the National; Hispanic Christian Leadership Association, 2011.

Las Vegas City Council’s “Hispanic Educator of the Year” 2007

National Latin Business Association’s “Champion of Education” 2007

Latin Chamber of Commerce’s “Education Award” winner 2007

Faculty Leadership Institute in Portland. Completed course of study; recommended for and completed the Advanced Leadership group this spring. Chosen as one of eight “class leaders.”

Vice President of Arthur Miller Society (2002-04)

Dissertation of the Year, 1994 (UNLV Foundation)

“Who’s Who Among American Teachers” 2000, 2001, 2003, 2004

Merit Award from UNLV’s Multicultural Association (1994)

Founded and developed “Shakespeare in the Schools” program, promoting the study of Shakespeare in local elementary schools.

Founded and developed “Future College Student Day” program, fostering college going in at-risk schools.

Diversity Training at American Council of Education Seminar (2005)

State of Nevada training on progressive disciplinary procedures, alcohol/drug awareness, sexual harassment

Conflict Management Seminar American Council on Education (2005)

Conflict Management Training, State of Nevada (2005)

Conflict Management Training, Zenger-Miller (1995)

Taught in UNLV's Honors Program (1993-4)

Taught in CSN's Distance Education Program

Trained in many computer-based programs

Professional Organizations

National Hispanic Christian Leadership Conference, Board Member

Alliance for Hispanic Christian Education, Chair

Christian Broadcasting Network, partner

American Center for Law and Justice

Virginia Beach Vision, Board Member

Urban League of Hampton Roads, Board Member

Virginia Latino Higher Education Network, Board Member

Hispanic Association of Colleges and Universities

Arthur Miller Society

International Shakespeare Association

American Literature Association

National Council of Workforce Education

National Council on Foreign Relations

Council on Race and Ethnic Equality

Community Service

Habitat for Humanity

Judge and speaker for The National Christian Forensics and Communications Assoc.

Volunteer for a number of Hampton Roads events and initiatives, including providing for the homeless at church (First Presbyterian, Norfolk)

Supporting African Missions through First Presbyterian, Norfolk

Shade Tree Shelter (battered women and children) Volunteer

Initiated "No Place for Hate" conference, bringing together community partners for a full week of unity activities

Worship Team Leader for 15 years at Neighborhood Christian Church
Former Ordained Minister (Four Square)

Bible Study Leader 2002-09

Community Pride Neighborhood Clean-Up Volunteer

Worked as a volunteer for several local homeless shelters, primarily M.A.S.H. Village and Salvation Army

Youth Volunteer for Neighborhood Christian Church

Volunteered for nine years as a coach and umpire for Little League

Assisted juvenile inmates in getting their GEDs

Made trips to "La Mission" in Mexico to help build houses for indigent families, and work at the local orphanage

Worked with the Nevada State Championship Team for "Odyssey of the Mind" series (two years)

"Friends of the Wetlands" desert clean-up project

Frequent participant in community walks / run, including the Susan Komen walk for breast cancer and the Women's Resource Center's "Walk for Life."

Administrative Accomplishments (2005-8)

Took the lead and was chief liaison in the securing of the largest single donation in the history of the College of Southern Nevada, an $8.2 million gift from the Engelstad Family Foundation to bolster the school's health sciences program.

Chief Academic Officer at nation's third largest two-year college (37,000 student headcount).

Direct reports include six academic schools from Arts and Letters to Resort Management, also the Division of Workforce and Economic Development.

Spearheading Faculty Diversity Initiative to increase faculty diversity.

Virtual College Institution-Wide initiative, committee member.

Chair, Steering Committee for successful NWCCU Accreditation visit.

Co-chaired Academic Master Plan committee.

Administrative Chair of Accreditation Response Team (ART).

Initiated discussions with “Three Square” non-profit corporation to build 40 million dollar food production and distribution facility on one of CSN’s campuses.

Asked to join President’s Cabinet (one of two academic members) and direct academic partnerships for the college.

Initiated college’s first-ever Latino Studies Program, set for immediate curricular development and Fall 2008 implementation.

Helped direct college’s first-ever Creative Writing Program.

Worked to develop college-wide Reading Skills Program; enrollment more than quadrupled.

As Director of Academic Partnerships, led effort to initiate “Jumpstart” high school dual credit / dual enrollment program.

Devised, planned, and implemented college-wide “Future College Student Day” program, bringing 5th grade students to the Cheyenne campus, promoting a culture of college going in Clark County elementary students.

Identified the space for, helped staff, and assisted with implementation of CSNs ‘Math and English Preparatory Center.’

Coordinated Division-wide professional development opportunities on Strategic Reading, Technology, and English curriculum development.

Worked with a CSN Grant team to secure an NCWE Learning Grant, one of only 16 colleges (from over 330 inquiries) nation-wide to be so honored.

Secured more than $10,000 in book donations for CSN Foundation's "First Class, First Book" initiative.

Hosted and participated in Early Assessment Program seminar to consider countywide high school assessment-placement exam.

Steering Committee Co-chair for successful Accreditation Self-Study.

Developed Comprehensive Assessment Plan and Portfolio for Division.

Established new curricular standards for ENG 102, meeting NSHE standards; Initiated a new course, ENG 092; the first course in the NSHE system to combine both Reading and Writing for students struggling with basic skills.

Devised, implemented and participated in CSN's "No Place for Hate" week, a citywide series promoting tolerance and inclusion.

Made significant inroads in establishing CSN's commitment to part-time instructors by initiating Art & Letters' first ever "Adjunct Appreciation and Awards Banquet," helping secure office space for adjuncts on the Charleston campus, meeting with part-time instructors in all disciplines, and chairing the committee as the primary author of a comprehensive part-time instructor handbook.

Chair, College-Wide, first-ever Part-Time Instructor Appreciation Event.

Initiated referral forms to bridge Adult Basic Education and ESL-ENG students.

Helped shape the "Recruitment Service Survey" now used by CSN's Human Resources Department.

Initiated required academic component for visiting directors for CSN Theater productions.

Played a key role in the implementation of the "Student to Teacher Enlistment Program (STEP) at nine area high schools.